

Reading and Writing French-Advanced

Course Outline

Level Description

At this level you are able to function in French and hold a conversation on a variety of topics, but still need to develop the knowledge of colloquial expressions and improve the accurate use of more complex sentence structure using all tenses appropriately.

Course Structure

This course consists of nine weekly units. Each unit starts with a reading from an authentic source which then serves as the source of grammar and vocabulary lessons. A variety of activities will have your practicing and improving your writing skills. You can expect to spend approximately five hours per week to complete the activities.

Course Schedule

Week 1: Pourquoi je suis accro à Facebook? : la place de l'adverbe

Week 2: I love Québec : subjonctif / indicatif

Week 3: L'avenir est au Costa Rica : le genre en détails

Week 4: Le petit prince : prépositions

Week 5: Le stress : quelque, quel que... ; expressions idiomatiques

Week 6: Comment sauver l'Amérique? tout, tous...

Week 7: Sous surveillance : accord du participe passé en détails (C.O.D. avant ou après, etc.)

Week 8: La maison du futur : participe présent / adjectif verbal

Week 9: Marie Laberge : anglicismes et homophones

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Extended Learning